

Documents Required for Canada Study Visa S-1

- Canada Visa Application Form.
- Your passport scans to prove that it is valid at least 2 years.
- Your travel history, meaning your whole passport scanned to also prove that you have blank pages in it.
- Letters from the court and police in your country to prove you have a clean criminal record;
- A Declaration Letter from you to the Government of Canada where you explain why they should give you a visa and study permit.
- Two photos that meet the Canada Photo Requirements:
 - Dimensions: 3,5 cm x 4,5 cm
 - Recent
 - Professionally taken
 - Set against a light-colored background
 - You must be facing forward, with a neutral facial expression
 - Your face must cover 70-80% of the picture
 - You may not wear tinted eyeglasses or decorative headgear
- Your employment or education status through a resume or diplomas.
- Have a valid acceptance letter from a Designated Learning Institution (DLI) with this information:
 - An official letterhead of the school.
 - The program and degree you will obtain.
 - The amount of tuition fees you must pay.
 - The start and finishing dates of the program.
- Proof that you can cover the expenses of studying in Canada (tuition and living costs) through one of the following:
 - You must have proof of a bank account that is in your name;
 - You must have bank statements for at least the past 4 months.
 - You must have proof that you have already paid your tuition and housing fees.
 - You must have a letter from a person or institution giving you money.
 - You must have proof that you have a scholarship.
- If you are going to study in Quebec, then you will also need to submit a Certificat d'acceptation du Quebec (CAQ) which is issued by the Quebec government. You will get the instructions from your school on how to apply for a CAQ.
- You must submit a letter of explanation saying why you want to study in Canada and guaranteeing that you accept and understand your responsibilities as a student in Canada.
- If a minor is going to Canada to study and need a custodian that is not a parent of the minor, then you also need to submit a Custodian Declaration Form which states who the custodian of the child is and must be signed by the parents or legal guardians of the child.

- If you are applying for the first time, then a document number on the study permit that is called a Unique Client Identifier (UCI) is not required for you. If you have applied for a study permit before, you are required to write your study permit document number which you can find in any letters that have been sent to you by the Canadian Government.
- Immigration Status, if you are applying from a different country than your origin Country.
- Civil status documents (as required): Birth certificate, marriage certificate, etc.
- If your family members (spouse or common law partner and minor children) are also accompanying you, you must also have the application forms ready for them and apply together as a family.
- Previous application applied to Canada or USA, if any.
- Visa application fees.

All the documents must be translated into English or French and you must have certifications and proof that the translation is correct. Once you submit all the documents, you can then proceed to submit the application and pay the fees.

 Note: You are not required to provide all the requirements mentioned previously because each visa application is unique and varies depending on factors such as age and marital status. For more information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

PREMIUM
— SERVICES BUREAU —
— TRAVEL SERVICES —