

Documents Required for Mexican Visit Visa

- A Mexico Tourist Visa Application Form printed and signed. If the applicant is a minor, the parents or legal guardians have to sign the application form.
- A passport or other travel document which is valid for at least another six months from the time you will enter Mexico. I must also have blank pages so the visa can be affixed.
 - Also, include a photocopy of your passport's relevant pages
- Passport-size pictures, with the following specifications:
 - Recent – no older than six months
 - Dimensions: 35 mm x 45 mm
 - Colored
 - Taken in front of a white background
 - Neutral facial expression
 - No glasses or headwear
- Booked return travel ticket, showing when you intend to depart Mexico.
- Proof of sufficient financial means to cover the duration of your stay via bank statements from the last three months.
- Immigration Status, if you are applies from a different country than your origin Country.
- Civil status documents (as required): Birth certificate, marriage certificate, etc.
- Proof of accommodation, such as a hotel booking or the name and address of someone in Mexico (if you'll be staying with friends/family)
- Employment status documents, such as:
 - If you are employed: A letter from your employer stating your position in the company, the time you will be absent, and that they do not object to your absence.
 - If you are a student: A letter from your educational institution, confirming your enrollment and providing details of your course.
 - If you are self-employed: Depending on your situation, you may submit investment certificates, property deeds, commercial registration, etc
- Cover letter addressed to the Mexico embassy. The letter must explain the reason you are travelling and give details of your trip, such as the dates of entry and departure and where you will stay, etc.
- Mexico visa fee.
- If travelling for business or you have been invited by an organization:
 - An original invitation or sponsorship letter, which states your full name, the company's name, and registration, what activity you will be doing in Mexico, and an estimated period of your stay
 - Photocopy of the ID of the person signing the letter
 - Bank statements from the last 12 months of the company sponsoring you (if applicable).

- If travelling to attend a short-term study course (less than 180 days):
 - Acceptance letter from the educational institution
 - Proof you can afford the tuition and living costs or proof of a scholarship.

Note: You are not required to provide all the requirements mentioned previously because each visa application is unique and varies depending on factors such as age and marital status. For more information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

